Table of Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................... 7

The 11th Kobe Lecture

_Brian Z. Tamanaha (St. Louis/MO)_
Insights about the Nature of Law from History ........................................ 17

Commentaries

_Itaru Shimazu (Tokyo/JPN)_
From the Viewpoint of Private Law. A Comment on Professor Tamanaha’s Paper ........................................................................................................ 49

_Ryuichi Nakayama (Osaka/JPN)_
On Legal Instrumentalism After Fukushima. A Comment on Professor Tamanaha’s Lecture ..................................................................................... 57

_Kiyoshi Hasegawa (Tokyo/JPN)_
Brian Tamanaha’s Conception of Law and His Critiques of H. L. A. Hart’s Theory of Law. ................................................................. 63

_Michihiro Kaino (Kyoto/JPN)_
Brian Tamanaha’s Historical Study and His Concept of Balanced Realism . . 71

_Hiroshi Matsuo (Tokyo/JPN)_
The Possibility of Legal Development through Legal Assistance and the Future of Law and Development ......................................................... 81

_Takehiro Ohya (Tokyo/JPN)_
Legal Assistance and Legal Development. A View from Japan .................... 89

_Ko Hasegawa (Sapporo/JPN)_
How to Deal with the Multiplicity of Law. Comments on Professor Brian Tamanaha’s Theoretical Challenge to Legal Positivism ..................... 97

_Keisuke Kondo (Kyoto/JPN)_
Rescuing Legal Philosophy. Comment on Tamanaha .................................. 105

_Tomohiko Shiina (Aomori/JPN)_
Social Legal Theory and Progressive Politics ............................................ 115

_Kosuke Nasu (Kyoto/JPN)_
Doubting Doubts, Rescuing Beliefs. Brian Z. Tamanaha and Reflections on Philosophy of Law. .................................................. 123

_Brian Z. Tamanaha_
The Orientation of Social Legal Theory .................................................. 133